

I Spy for Love Your Park @ Home

Look outside and learn about the plants + animals in your park or back yard by playing I Spy!

TREE

Did you know the tallest tree in the world is a redwood in California measuring 380 feet?!

SOIL

Did you know that there are 70,000 Different types of soil in the U.S.?

BIRD

There are approximately 350 species of birds that regularly occur in Philadelphia.

FIREFLY

Did you know that the Pennsylvania state insect is a firefly?

SHRUB

Shrubs provide food and shelter for many birds & animals living around the city.

ROCK

A common rock type found in Philly is called Wissahickon schist and it was named after the Wissahickon Valley Park!

WORM

Did you know that there are approximately 2,700 different kinds of earthworms?

SQUIRREL

There are 5 species of squirrel in Philadelphia parks, but the Eastern grey squirrel is the most common.

FLOWER

Did you know that the flower of the mountain laurel shrub is the Pennsylvania's official state flower?